Billy Elliot Our next Film Evening is Friday 28th January.

Please arrive for 6.30pm for a cup of tea/coffee.

The film will begin at 6.45.

After the film, we will have another cuppa, some cake, and a chance to chat.

This week's film is "Billy Elliot" - I know we've all seen it before but it is such a powerful film on many levels, and is ultimately gloriously uplifting! Come and watch it again among friends.

Remember that church can be chilly, so do bring a blanket.

Also, there is some STRONG LANGUAGE in this film - be warned.

Our final film will be shown on Friday 11th February and is "The Dig" - a recently released film about the discovery of the Anglo Saxon finds at Sutton Hoo.

Weekly Prayer for Bollinbrook School

For 20-25 minutes most Tuesdays in term time, a small group of people gather via Zoom to pray for the staff and community of Bollinbrook.

"As 'our' church school it's such a privilege to be invited to pray regularly for God's presence and blessing on the teachers, the children and their families. I am in constant admiration for Lynne le Marinel and her staff team, and all they manage to carry and care for whilst enthusiastically teaching the children. If you'd like to join me and a few others on Tuesday lunchtimes (1:00-1.25pm) please do ask me for the Zoom details."
