

Music@Mike's Summer Term 2022

A series of informal lunchtime concerts show-casing the best of our young and aspiring musicians from the town and further afield.

There has been a change to our programme for the 8th July, so here is the updated programme for the last 3 weeks of this term

Thursday 30th June - Kell Wind Trio, performing works by Mozart, Bach, Walton, Grainger and others. The trio has a national reputation for giving lively and informative concerts, and we are delighted to welcome them back to Macclesfield.

Friday 8th July – Cloris Tang, piano. Cloris is 14, a pupil at All Hallows Catholic College, amazingly talented and a wonderful all-round musician. We are very excited to host her first public performance since her arrival from Hong Kong a year ago.

Friday 15th July - Imogen Garner, mezzo-soprano. Imogen trained at the RNCM and has performed for ENO, Scottish Opera and many other companies and is looking forward to entertaining again the audience in her home town

St.Michael's Church in the market place. 1.15 – 2.00

Entry is free, but donations to the East Cheshire Hospice and St.Michael's are welcomed.

At all our lunchtime concerts light refreshments or a main course are available both before and after the event from our new Angel At My Table café
